

In Line LoFlo specification.

Another of our patented water management devices.

Benefits:

- Water management to new or existing properties.
- Additional security against potential contamination by back flow.
- Home occupier control of water consumption.

Features:

- One product avoiding the need for multiple fittings on apparatus.
- Male thread to connect to any internal stop tap.
- Moulded in a single piece in virgin acetal.
- Standard O rings.
- 22mm spigot to connect to any standard water fitting.
- NeoPerl backflow check valve incorporating flow regulator.
- Standard output of 12 litres / minute.
- Options for various output requirements (2 to 16 l/m)

Security:

- Internal use only - Accessible only on property served.

Insulation:

- Not applicable, installed on incoming water service.

Applications:

- As part of kitchen refurbishment or similar.
- As part of an audit on water usage.

Legislation:

- Compliant with all water industry legislation.
- Tested and certified by testing houses for UK water industry.

Technical data:Size:

28mm long when installed, 15mm bore

Connections:

Any standard plumbing fitting

Pressure rating:

Certified to 10 bar.

Burst pressure 50 bar.

Extrapolated life span:

15 to 25 years

Insulation:

Not applicable